

DIED.

CULLEN—Accidentally killed Nov. 7, 1916, at Boston Creek, John Cullen, aged husband of Mrs. John B. Cullen. Funeral from his late residence, Mr. M. church, thence to Perkins Mills for Nov. 11th at 6.30 am. to St. Bridget's church, thence to Perkins Mills, Ont., for interment. Friends and acquaintances kindly accept this intimation. 312

OBITUARY.

J. B. CULLEN.

The funeral of John B. Cullen took place from the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. M. O'Brien, 115 Cumberland street, on Saturday morning to St. Bridget's church. Rev. Father Fay sang the requiem mass, and afterwards the remains were taken to Perkins Mills, Que., for interment. Mr. Cullen was killed in Northern Ontario by the falling of a tree.